The midwife was again entertained in temporary vacancies and subsequently confirmed with effect from 2nd. December 1935. On her re--employment the midwife, by mistake was started only on Rs.30/- being the initial pay of her grade, though according to sub--rule 4 to rule 6 of the rules appended to G.O.No. 486 P.S., dated the 31st. March 1932, she was entitled to draw the pay she was getting at the time of retrenchment and to count her previous services for purposes of increment etc.

A statement fixing the increment due to the midwife with reference to the orders quoted above is enclosed together with the service book of the midwife.

I have the honour to enquire whether the dates of increment shown in the statement are correct. Government will
